Subarna Mitra

M. Sc., Software Engineering - Hof University

Studying in Germany had always been my dream, and finally, here I was able to pursue a Master's in Software Engineering for Industrial Applications in Hochschule Hof. En-route Deutschland is a big reason behind my admission to this university. They are the best!!

Nidhi Sihag

M. Sc., Infotech - Stuttgart University

En-route Deutschland is a good German education consultancy for students who hope to continue their education in Germany. They provide great insights about Germany and its education system and assist in finding appropriate study programs in every way.

Aryan Naik

B. Sc., Mechanical Engineering - FH Schweinfurt

After finishing senior secondary school in India in 2019, I was eager to study in Germany. But with each university having different requirements, clear guidance was hard to find. I then made the right decision by choosing En-route Deutschland, as they helped me secure direct admission to a bachelor's program, without Studienkolleg.
